REPORT OF INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

To the Board of Directors
Jackson & Company, Incorporated

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial condition of Jackson & Company, Incorporated as of December 31, 2005 and 2004 and the related statements of income, changes in stockholder's equity, and cash flows for the years then ended that you are filing pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Jackson & Company, Incorporated as of December 31, 2005 and 2004 and the results of its operations and cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The information contained in Schedules I and II is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements, but is supplementary information required by Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

JACKSON & COMPANY, INCORPORATED

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS DECEMBER 31, 2005 AND 2004

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business

Jackson & Company, Incorporated (the "Company") is a registered securities broker-dealer located in Navarre, Florida. The Company was organized under the laws of the State of Florida on November 24, 1997; however, the Company did not start transacting business until June 4, 1998. The Company's dealer transactions are limited to the purchase, sale and redemption of redeemable securities of registered investment companies. The Company's expenses of maintaining and operating an office are minimal and in accordance with an agreement with the Company's sole shareholder, these expenses are assumed by a separate company with common ownership operating in the same office.

Basis of Accounting

The accounting records of the Company are maintained on the accrual basis whereby revenue is recorded when earned and expenses are recognized when incurred.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Security Transactions

Securities are valued at market value. Gains (losses) on investment securities include both realized and unrealized gains (losses).

Income Taxes

The Company has elected to be taxed as an S corporation under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. Under those provisions, the Company does not pay Federal corporate income taxes on its taxable income. Instead, stockholders are liable for individual Federal income taxes on their respective shares of the Company's taxable income.

Use of Estimates

In preparing the Company's financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2005 AND 2004

NOTE 2 - INVESTMENTS

Investment securities owned at December 31, 2005 are as follows:

	Cost	Quoted Market Value	Unrealized Gain
300 shares Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc.	$ 4,500	10,554	6,054

NOTE 3 - PENSION PLAN

The Company sponsors a Simplified Employee Pension (SEP) under which it makes contributions to Individual Retirement Accounts of substantially all full-time employees. Contributions are decided by the Board of Directors each year. Contributions were made in the amount of $500 for 2005 and 2004.

NOTE 4 - NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1.

Net capital and aggregate indebtedness change from day to day, but at December 31, 2005, the Company had net capital of $18,212, which was $13,212 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. At December 31, 2004, the Company had net capital of $19,218, which was $14,218 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The net capital rule may effectively restrict the payment of cash dividends.

OTHER SCHEDULES

DECEMBER 31, 2005

The following schedules are not being filed as they are inapplicable, or not required:

1. Computation for Determination of Reserve Requirements Pursuant to Rule 15c3-3 is not applicable since respondent's dealer transactions are limited to the purchase, sale and redemption of redeemable securities of registered investment companies or of interests or participation in an insurance company separate account, whether or not registered as an investment company.
2. Information relating to the possession or control requirements under Rule 15c3-3 is not required since respondent's dealer transactions are limited to the purchase, sale and redemption of redeemable securities of registered investment companies.
3. Reconciliation between audited and unaudited Statements of Financial Condition with respect to methods of consolidation.
4. Statement of Changes in Liabilities Subordinated to Claims of Creditors is not required since no liabilities of the respondent are subordinated to the general claims of creditors.

INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL

Board of Directors
Jackson & Company, Incorporated

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Jackson & Company, Incorporated (the Company) for the year ended December 31, 2005, we considered its internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission, we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company, including tests of such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness (or aggregate debits) and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a)(11), and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons.
2. Recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13.
3. Complying with the requirement for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments made by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the previous paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or fraud may nevertheless occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of internal control would not necessarily disclose all matters that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that error or fraud in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving internal control, including control activities for safeguarding securities, that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that the practice and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and any related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives, in all material respects, indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2005 to meet the SEC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Directors, management, the SEC and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
